Engaging the Harrow Communities

Compass

Serving the community

To live up to our vision and values, particularly valuing people and being solution focused we aim to provide services that have equitable access and break down barriers to engagement.

Mission

Helping people to solve the problems of drug and alcohol use, creating healthier lives and safer communities

Vision

To be the best provider of substance misuse services by having the maximum impact on the lives of the people we help

Values

Integrity

An unstinting commitment to honesty and openness in all our activities

Valuing Each Individual

Respecting the needs of individuals and seeking to give them greater control over their lives

Being Solution Focused

Responding quickly and flexibly to new and emerging needs

Consistent & Reliable Approach

Delivering on our commitments - we do what we say we will do

Being Visible

- ◆ Attendance at community events
- ◆ Drop in's at community locations such as community centres and youth clubs
- ◆ Targeted group work to 'at risk groups' of young people
- ◆ Free training to skill up the wider workforce

Being Inclusive

- ◆ Passionate about helping others to reduce health inequalities
- ◆ Non-judgmental
- ◆ Empathetic

Our offer

- ◆ Attendance at community meetings to provide training and support
- ◆ Attendance at youth clubs to engage young people
- ◆ Specialist 1-1 work with any young people who are using substances
