

Have you suffered the loss of a child?

The Compassionate Friends is a charity run by bereaved parents dedicated to the support of other parents who have a lost a child.

We understand that the grief experienced following the death of a child is unlike any other, and parents going through this dreadful experience need support and friendship.

A support group for the North West London branch of The Compassionate Friends meets on the third Friday morning of each month (10am-12 noon) at: Northolt Village Community Centre. The Manor House, Ealing Road, Northolt, Middlesex UB5 6AD. This is just off the Mandeville Road and very near the Target roundabout on A40.

For more information please contact Sue Hughes on 01628 898514 or at shughes@webmd.net. Dates and times may sometimes vary so please phone or email to check the group is on before turning up.

More details about The Compassionate Friends can be found at <http://www.tcf.org.uk>